

Ethical Principles for Publishing Form

1. Institutional Approval

My institution requires me to submit a proposal to the IRB. Yes No

If yes, you must submit evidence that you received approval prior to conducting research.

2. Informed Consent

a. Does your research include participants? Yes No

If yes, did you receive written consent from the participants? Yes No

If no, explain. _____

_____
_____

If yes, you must submit the consent form.

6. If your research included participants, did you conduct debriefing? Yes No N/A

If yes, explain how you debriefed them. If no, explain why you did not debrief them.

_____
_____
_____

7. Does your research involve the use of animals? Yes No

If yes, attach evidence of ethical and legal approval prior to initiation of the study.

10. Does the authorship listed reflect the contribution to the manuscript? Yes No

If no, explain: _____

_____
_____

11. Do you agree to the following terms: The original author retains copyright in their article, but the journal retains the commercial publishing and journal compilation rights.

Yes No

12. Do you agree to share your data with other competent professionals who seek to verify your claims after publication of the data provided that participant confidentiality is protected and legal rights do not prevent the release of data?

Yes No

Note: Numbering refers to the "Ethical Principles for Publishing" document. Should you have any questions contact: revpsicologia@pucp.edu.pe